Please confirm that you are NOT an international applicant:

☐ I am not an international applicant

TATI is not able to accept applications from international applicants until further notice, due to a federal government decision regarding the cap on international study permits. (International applicant = non-Canadian applicant who does not have permanent resident status and will require a study permit to pursue education in Canada).

APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

For details of the required application documents please visit https://tati.on.ca/on-site-program/

- ☐ Signed program application form
- ☐ Official transcript(s): emailed directly from the academic institution(s) or through a secure third party service (e.g. MyCreds) to admissions@tati.on.ca
- ☐ 3 letters of reference: 2 professional or academic, 1 character - reference form emailed directly to admissions@tati.on.ca from each individual writing the reference
- ☐ Statement of interest
- ☐ Resume
- ☐ Portfolio of artwork
- ☐ Application fee: $180.00 Canadian (Non-refundable) - payment instructions provided when applicant file is opened

We thank all applicants for their interests, efforts in putting together the application package, and sharing your work with us. However, due to the high volume of applications we receive relative to the number of spots available in each cohort, only suitable candidates will be contacted for an interview with the admissions committee. All applicants will receive a decision letter at least two months before the program start date. Incomplete and unsuccessful applications are kept on file for one year and can be transferred over to another admissions period for re-application within the year, by request. We require an updated statement of interest and new application fee payment for all re-applications.
