Please confirm that you are NOT an international applicant:

I am not an international applicant

TATI is not able to accept applications from international applicants until further notice, due to a federal government decision regarding the cap on international study permits. (International applicant = non-Canadian applicant who does not have permanent resident status and will require a study permit to pursue education in Canada).

PERSONAL ATTESTATION FOR DISTANCE LEARNING APPLICATION:

The distance learning program is intended for people who reside at least 100 km away from our Toronto campus, who cannot attend Saturday classes due to religious observance, or who have accessibility needs that make attending weekly onsite classes infeasible. Please select what applies to you below:

- I reside at least 100 km away from the TATI campus
- I cannot attend Saturday classes due to religious observance
- I have accessibility needs that make attending weekly onsite classes infeasible*

Please note: while semesters 1, 3, & 4 are delivered online, onsite class attendance at our Toronto campus is required for the onsite intensive semesters 2 & 5. We're not able to accommodate online learning during the onsite intensives.*

APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

For details of the required application documents please visit <https://tati.on.ca/distance-learning-program/>

We thank all applicants for their interests, efforts in putting together the application package, and sharing your work with us. However, due to the high volume of applications we receive relative to the number of spots available in each cohort, only suitable candidates will be contacted for an interview with the admissions committee. All applicants will receive a decision letter at least two months before the program start date. Incomplete and unsuccessful applications are kept on file for one year and can be transferred over to another admissions period for re-application within the year, by request. We require an updated statement of interest and new application fee payment for all re-applications.
